Docket: CU-3637

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

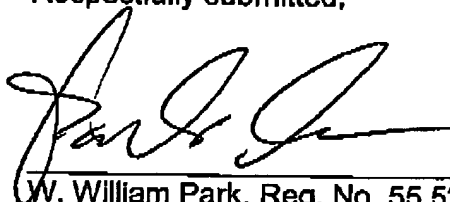

According to the Notice of Allowance mailed May 4, 2006, the pending claims 1-19 are allowed.

By the present amendment, claim 13 is amended, and claim 19 is cancelled without prejudice. No new matter has been added.

As to claim 13, the preamble is amended to --A semiconductor device ~~substrate~~ - by deleting "substrate." This merely removes the inadvertent typographical error without adding new matter.

It is respectfully submitted that the specification including the claims as herein amended and the drawings should require no additional search or examination as the minor correction is being made for clarity. Should the examiner have any questions, the examiner is encouraged the undersigned attorney by telephone to expeditiously resolve any remaining issues.

Respectfully submitted,
